

In July 2008, the St. Ann Knights paid for two teens to attend the Pro-Life Boot Camp.

The camp was held at the University of Dallas and provided a “total Pro-Life immersion” for those attending. The Knights of Council 10245 fully covered the cost for the two St. Ann teens attending. The fees included lodging, meals, T-shirt as well as other expenses.

The Council fully intends to continue this Pro-Life initiative.
